NOTICE OF TERMINATION OF CONSENT ORDER

Plaintiff the United States provides notice to the Court that the Consent Order, ECF No. 16, entered on June 26, 2014, has terminated pursuant to its own terms. Paragraph 43 of the Consent Order reads

If Defendant has distributed all funds detailed in Paragraph 17 above in conformance with Paragraph 2 above, this Consent Order shall terminate three months after the submission of the Offer Exclusion Redress Plan Report to the DOJ and the Regional director; if there remain funds, as detailed in Paragraph 21 above, this Consent Order shall terminate three months after Defendant submits the last annual report to the DOJ and the Regional Director, as detailed in Paragraph 23.

Defendant submitted to the United States its Offer Exclusion Redress Plan Report on October 23, 2015, as is required by Paragraph 19 of the Consent Order, and has provided $201,454,811 in redress to 133,463 consumers. Defendant has, moreover, distributed all funds detailed in Paragraph 21 of the Consent Order, in conformance with Paragraph 2. As a result, the United States provides this notice to the Court that its Order has terminated.
